MESSAGE FROM HOST

We will have a potluck dinner party to welcome the new Cupertino City Council and celebrate the holidays together with all our neighbors and friends in the city.

The event is open to the public. Everyone in the City of Cupertino is invited.

Due to room limitation. Please sign up and get your ticket, first come first served!!

Please clip on the "What to bring" on the menu of the left side to enter your entry so we can keep track of what all people will bring. The quantity of your entry should be enough for your own party plus a 20% extra to share with others.

Make sure that label your dinner ware with your name and phone number so you can easily identify and retrieve it at the end of party.

There will be an annual open enrollment for the regular membership of our 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, the Friends of Better Cupertino, dedicated to public education and promotion of democracy, political process, sensible growth and environmental concerns.

Seniors and children are welcome.

Door opens at 6:00pm, Dinner starts at 6:30pm, party ends at 9:15pm.

Let's party with everyone in our community to celebrate "Friendship, Unity and New council members (FUN)" in Cupertino!!

In addition, please remember to attend the sworn-in ceremony of the new city council at 7:00pm on December 6, 2018 (Thursday).

Two more things that you might do are either to take part in the annual "Make A Wish" donation by contributing to the non-profit foundation managed by the San Jose Mercury News, or bring at least one coat/blanket to donate at the city hall to the needies when you attend the sworn-in ceremony on Thursday.
