City of Cupertino Launches New Online Cupertino Store

CUPERTINO, CA – The City of Cupertino is proud to announce the launch of its new online Cupertino Store today. The Cupertino Store offers residents, visitors, or anyone who loves Cupertino a convenient way to shop for City-branded products, including coffee mugs, bamboo utensil sets, t-shirts, water bottles, and more.

“We are thrilled to launch our new store with a variety of Cupertino-branded items,” said Mayor Hung Wei. “The City of Cupertino is a wonderful place to live and work, and we’re pleased to offer the community a way to take a piece of Cupertino with them everywhere they go.”

The online store has been designed with an easy-to-use interface, allowing community members to browse and purchase products with ease. The store features secure payment options and reliable, local shipping or the option for pickup at City Hall.

“We hope the Cupertino Store provides our residents and visitors with fun and useful products to showcase their Cupertino pride,” stated City Manager Pamela Wu. “We’ve received great feedback so far, and hope everyone enjoys these City-branded products.”

The launch of the Cupertino Store is part of the City of Cupertino’s larger effort to use technology to improve and enrich residents’ lives. With an offering of many eco-friendly products, such as solar power banks and reusable utensils and straws, the store also advances the City’s sustainability goals.
